Ways to help out at home

Reading – Read at home as much as possible, with, and to, your child. For the greatest gains, your child needs to be reading at home EVERY DAY!

Writing – You’ve been given the power to create one new law that everyone in your country must follow. What would it be, and how would it improve life for everyone?

Team time talk (Oracy) – Discuss how we can support different people in the community. For example, asylum seekers and refugees.

Maths – Practise multiplying two digit numbers. For example 67×9 .

Science – Google BBC Bitesize Materials to learn all about the topic.
